Dear Mr. Williams:

Your letter addressed to Dr. Sockman, has just come to me for attention. He will be out of town all of this week - hence my reply to you.

I regret exceedingly that your brother, Dr. Williams, in Rochester, was confused as to the exact location of the Colonnade itself, and in response to a letter received from him at this office, we have already told him exactly where the ceremony will be held, which is, of course, on the uptown campus of the University, at University Heights in New York. The Madison Avenue address is the Executive Office of the Hall of Fame. The invitations for the ceremony will be mailed to him April 18 and will carry all of the information relating to the ceremony, as well as directions on how to reach the University.

We shall, of course, be happy, indeed, to have you and Mrs. Williams attend the ceremony, and an invitation will be sent to you.

Dr. Sockman will, I am sure, be pleased to see your letter, and when he returns from Albany, I shall show it to him. We return your brother's letter to you herewith.

Cordially yours,

Bertha L. Lyons (Mrs. N.)
